

Be a patriot!

Learn another language!

The United States of America needs more citizens who can communicate in another language and who understand other cultures. The War on Terrorism will ultimately be won when the people of the world learn to understand each other, communicate productively with each other, and tolerate and respect differences.